GARY ANNOUNCES TWELVE HOUR DAY BE ABOLISHED BY STEEL TRUST

GARY ANNOUNCES TWELVE HOUR DAY THING OF PAST

President Asks That Steel Industry Have Short Hours

COMPERS DON'T LIKE ATTITUDE

Labor Head Believes Steel Trust Are Insincere

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, July 6.—Entrance to the United States of labor supply from Mexico, Philippines, Canada and several European countries will soon make possible the abolishment of the 12-hour day system maintained in the steel industry Judge Elbert H. Gary announced today.

Mr. Gary's announcement followed the announcement of President Harding made public yesterday before he sailed for Alaska at Tacoma.

Mr. Gary declared that the 12-hour day would be abolished within a reasonable length of time. The long day would gradually be abolished and pointed out that the ever increasing labor supply from foreign countries would make this possible.

He estimated that the change would require about 60,000 new employees and increase the cost of good steel production by approximately 15 per cent.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Promises made by Judge Elbert H. Gary and other heads of the steel industry to President Harding to eliminate the 12-hour day was declared to be "tainted with bluff and insincerity" by Samuel E. Compers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

"I advise steel workers not to expect too much as the result of the exchange of cordialities between President Harding and Judge Gary."

"With more labor the judge doubtless thinks that wages can be cut," Compers added.

The president's suggestion to Judge Gary carried with it the hope that the 12-hour day might be abolished and intimated that there would soon be a sufficient supply of surplus labor in the United States from foreign countries.

Mr. Gary replied that "of course it shall be as the president wishes."

The only sure way to secure the cut of this long hour day is to refuse to remain fastened to the steel trust. That the president should consider giving this to the public as a serious promise is absurd. This was the sentiment expressed by the federated crafts head.

HINES DECLARES AFFAIRS WILL BE ADJUSTED

(By Associated Press)

ATLANTA, July 6.—Director General Frank T. Hines director of the war veterans bureau was here today on his way from Tuskegee, Ala., which town he visited yesterday in connection with the controversy growing out of the assignment of a negro personnel to the war veteran's hospital there. He said that the matter would be adjusted.

Joe Sparks of Washington, chairman of the rehabilitation committee accompanied General Hines. Sparks declared that the work under Hines in the veteran's bureau is meeting with the approval of the people and is working in harmony with the principles of the American people.

NEW YORK WOMAN FACES ELECTRIC CHAIR

Mrs. Anna Buzzi.

Mrs. Anna Buzzi, a New York City woman is the first murderess to be convicted there of first degree murder for several years. There was no recommendation to mercy, and she will be formally sentenced on July 9 to die in the electric chair. She was convicted of murdering Frederick Schneider, wealthy contractor with whom she had lived for eight years, but who, the State alleged, was preparing to leave her to return to his wife.

KIWANIS MEETING FEATURED WITH TALK BY PASTOR

The regular Thursday meeting of the Morgan Kiwanis club was held at the Y. M. C. A. at noon. Good fellowship was evident and some constructive suggestions were made to be acted on in the future. The luncheon was enjoyed by a large attendance.

The feature of the noon meeting was an interesting talk delivered by Dr. L. F. Goodwin and listened to attentively by those in attendance.

The address made by Dr. Goodwin follows in part:

"In school we learned that Columbus discovered America in 1492. Were he to return, no doubt he would be astonished to find what he discovered, and would probably disclaim the credit. How insignificant that discovery except that it revealed the fact that there was something in the west that was worthy and awaiting discovery. Many since that time have discovered America. The Pilgrim Fathers discovered the future home of the world's democracy. Since then many oppressed, liberty seeking people have discovered here a place of safe retreat and opportunity."

The story runs: 1492 Columbus; 1776 Washington and the constitution; 1801, Jefferson and the Louisiana purchase; 1861 Lincoln and his Gettysburg address; later, that lesser struggle with Spain, our attitude to the Boxer uprising in China. In all these the world was discovering America; her nobility of character and her Christian sympathy for the oppressed. The world did not know America in 1914. We did not know our selves. Our enemies said, America worships mammon. She will not fight. She is cowardly, covetous and effeminate. She is incapable of concrete action because she has no army, no officers and lacks unity of spirit."

But today, the world knows America better. She does not worship mammon, and is recognized as the land of the loftiest ideas of earth. She will go further and suffer deeper for humanity and a principle of righteousness than any other nation on the globe. The result of the recent great war has been that the world looks on America as the colossal figure among nations.

Her resources stagger them. Her amateur soldiers outmatched the professionals of militarism. The spirit she has manifested in her willingness to sacrifice for the right, her determination to put an end to the power

PUBLIC SERVICE MEMBERS HERE A FEW HOURS

President Patterson of the Alabama Public Service Commission and his associates, Morgan and Lee, accompanied by state highway engineer Keller and Judge Bricken of the Court of Appeals were visitors to the Twin-Cities this morning for a short period between trains.

Arriving on the Pan-American this morning the distinguished visitors were met by members of the Albany-Decatur Chamber of Commerce headed by J. W. Clopton, W. W. Rahm, Russell Speake, T. A. Bowles, and W. W. Fussell. They were conducted by automobile about the two cities and investigated the conditions of the public service utilities in the two towns.

COL. WRIGHTSON TO LEAD FIGHT AGAINST DISEASE

Reappointment Comes As Good News Here

MALARIA PROBLEM SERIOUS QUESTION

Asks Physicians And Citizens Lend Hand

The federal malaria fight in Northern Alabama will continue—and for another year at least, the fight will be led in 10 Tennessee Valley counties for the federal government by Col. William D. Wrightson associate of the late Col. William C. Gorgas, and of Dr. J. A. LePrince, the noted malaria expert, now a national leader of the movement against malaria.

Colonel Wrightson's reappointment will be hailed as good news by those who have watched his course for the past year, and noted his enthusiasm for the death of malarial germs.

Seen at the Morgan county health unit apartments today Colonel Wrightson stated that he hoped to be in at the death of the last malaria mosquito in the South and declared he was going to "camp on the trail" of the pests in the Tennessee Valley, "as long as the government lets me stay here."

"I believe the malaria problem is the greatest one Alabama has as to her future outlook," declared Colonel Wrightson. He added that he believed the same was true for the entire south.

"The farmers are getting sick and tired, both tenants and land owners of having to be always moving from one place to another to avoid the malaria chills. Some times tenants move as often as twice a year to avoid malaria poisoning." The North Alabama counties over which Colonel Wrightson has federal jurisdiction are: Lauderdale, Colbert, Franklin, Lawrence, Madison, Morgan, Jackson, Limestone and Cullman.

A Straight Talk On Malaria Duty.

In speaking of the duty of one and all to take up arms against malaria this morning, Colonel Wrightson did not mince matters. He said first of all physicians should inform the county health officer of all cases of malaria poisoning, explaining that in order to fight an enemy it was first of all necessary to know where he is "and how many there are of the enemy." Beginning next on home duties, Colonel Wrightson said not 12 and 14 mesh screen wire should be used by 16 inch mesh, "and insist on full length window screens." "14 mesh stock screen doors and windows do let mosquitos in." "Let the cities adopt the standard anti-malaria ordinance and enforce it." The Chamber of Commerce, said Colonel Wrightson "could show what a practically mosquito free town will mean in encouraging new industries to locate here, in increasing property values. Let this organization try to find a single community with a high malaria rate that is making moral progress." "The women's clubs and the individual women, should insist on 16 mesh screen wire, and make every day mosquito 'hunting day' On the women will fall much of the burden of destroying malaria." "Women should insist on the regular 'quinine treatment' for malaria. Any physician can tell what that

RELIGIOUS MEETING BELIEVES 12 HOUR DAY DETRIMENT

Principles Of Bible Should Be Used In Industry

PRESENT DAY HEROES BANNED

Hamilton Says Fame Depends On Salary Drawn

(By Associated Press)

DES MOINES, July 6.—The 12-hour day and the seven day a week for industrial workers is a menace to the American home, the Christian church and free government, according to a declaration contained in a resolution adopted today by the Twenty-ninth International Christian Endeavor convention in session here. The resolution was introduced by the executive committee of the United Society of Christian Endeavor and will be sent to the constituent societies.

The text of the statement follows: "Unrest and open warfare in industry constitute a distinct challenge to christianity. Jesus Christ is for the individual and for the institutions of society—the only sufficient Saviour. We believe that the application of his spirit and principles to the problems and controversies of commerce and trade, will promote good-will and establish peace."

"We recommend those who are acting as pathfinders of a new and Christian social order. Particularly do we commend such organizations as the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, and the International Harvester company, for their demonstration of the practicability of the eight-hour day, the shop committee, and the wisdom of the participation of workers in direction and control."

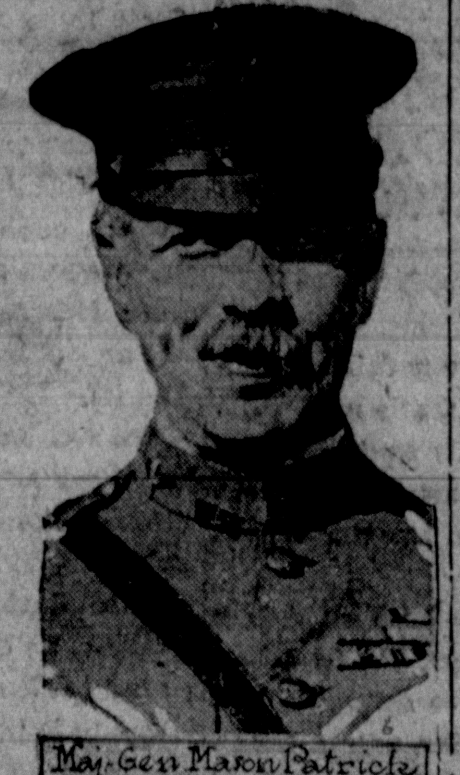

"The twelve-hour day, the seven day week, the espionage system and autocratic control are relics of an industrial absolutism; where they still continue they are a menace to the American home, the christian church, and free government; they remain as feudal evils that christian civilization ought long since to have outlawed. Because of them the church is often unjustly measured by the working world. For vast numbers they stand as barriers in the road to Americanization. They promote unrest and make for bitterness and therefore are not good for a nation. We pledge our best efforts under the wise leadership of our churches to bring them to an end."

America will suffer a loss of idealism in the future because of the promise given to huge salaries and fees paid to movie stars, prize fighters and baseball players, according to Clarence Hamilton, of Boston, in addressing today's session of the International Christian Endeavor convention here.

"Modern heroes as pictured in the newspapers and magazines are not very desirable characters for our boys and girls to emulate," said M. Hamilton. "Practically all of them are placed upon a money-making basis. Character and achievement count for little with them. The prizefighter who can deliver a punch to knock his opponent senseless is given many big headlines before and after the effective punch is delivered and for that punch he gets several fortunes, besides notoriety which passes in our day for fame. Likewise the movie stars who can go through some capers and simulate virtues which they do not possess, are heralded as great men and women because they attract buyers of tickets to box-offices. The same is true of baseball players."

"Boys and girls and young men who emulate these weaklings, termed and pictured as heroes and heroines, are building on sand. The real heroes are those who are contributing to our physical and mental and spiritual well being. They should be lauded and emulated. The idealism of America will suffer if the false standards of values are accepted by a large proportion of our American youth."

Major-General Mason M. Patrick.

Major-General Mason M. Patrick, Chief of the Army Air Service, has just been awarded his double wings as a qualified airplane pilot, despite the fact that he is 60 years of age. ## GOVERNESS BODY FOUND SLASHED NEAR HER BED

(By Associated Press)

SCARSDALE, N. Y., July 6.—Madeline Harmer, 16-year-old farmer's daughter stood out today as the best hope that authorities have for the identification of the murderer of Miss Dorothy Kaufman, a Menomonee girl, whose slashed body was found Wednesday at the home of Magruder Craighead.

Miss Harmer said that she had seen a negro loitering about the Craighead home a few hours before Miss Kaufman is believed to have been slain.

Other witnesses said they saw a negro turning his coat wrong-side out probably attempting to disguise his appearance. When the coat was turned a cracker box fell to the ground and investigations as to finger prints on the box and prints on the knife with which Miss Kaufman was slain may lead to the apprehension of the criminal.

Mr. Craighead is an engineer for the John Manville Co., and had gone away for the holiday with his family leaving Miss Kaufman alone. Miss Harmer said that she visited the slain girl in the forenoon Tuesday and made an appointment to spend the night. Arriving about 2:30 a. m. after having attended a dance Miss Harmer said she found the body of the young girl with several stab wounds, lying on the floor near her bed.

Little is known of the slain girl even by Miss Harmer, her closest friend. Miss Harmer said she had revealed only that she was the member of a large family of Menomonees living in Maryland and she had left home tiring of the life of a country school teacher to prepare for a position in the city schools. She had taken the position of governess in the Craighead home in preparation for this position when she was slain.

FIGHT PICTURES BEFORE CENSORS

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 6.—Motion picture films showing the scenes around Shelby, Mont., preceding the Dempsey-Gibbons fight there on July 4, but not showing the actual fighting between the two boxers were submitted to the Federal authorities here today for inspection. It was said that it was understood that the federal authorities would let the films be shown. The companies owning the films notified the federal agents of their presence in Chicago today.

MAGIC CITY MAN CONFIDENT FORD'S OFFER ACCEPTED

Labor Element Will Prove Great Asset In Race

WORTHINGTON IS IN TRI-CITIES

New Yorker's Express Belief Ford Will Be Elected

James E. Penney on his return from New York and Pittsburgh stopped here a few days pending his return to his home in Birmingham. Mr. Penney is a former resident of the Twin-Cities and still maintains large business interests here.

Speaking of the prospects Henry Ford has for obtaining the Muscle Shoals Mr. Penney stated that in both New York and Pittsburgh that it was generally conceded by those in power in both financial and political circles that should Mr. Ford remain out of presidential politics that he would obtain any wish that he wanted without any effort on his own part.

Mr. Penney added that it appeared Ford would get the Shoals no matter in what trend his political ideas happen to run. A poll taken about a time that Congress adjourned, according to his informers in New York showed very clearly that all opposition to the dreams of the great financier had crumbled away.

Mr. Penney made an effort to get in touch with Colonel Worthington or with the Ford office after he had become convinced, resulting from conversation with prominent New Yorkers that the opposition against Ford ownership of the Shoals is over, but was unable to locate either of the men being told that Mr. Ford was moving from place to place constantly. He understood that Colonel Worthington is now in the Tri-Cities.

The former Twin-City citizen declared that the labor element coupled with Mr. Ford's own organizations are thought to furnish him the greatest support should he decide to become presidential timber in the 1924 race.

Business men in New York and Pittsburgh considered that with Ford as a presidential candidate no matter what party he receives the nomination from will cut a wide swath and at the same time make the race for the presidency of the United States a very uncertain affair.

REPORTS MAY SHOW INNOCENT MAN WAS VICTIM OF MO. MOB

(By Associated Press)

MEXICO, Mo., July 6.—Reports were afloat here today that James T. Scott a negro was the innocent victim of a mob which hanged him at Columbia, Mo., on April 29th last and that the perpetrator of the deed of which Scott was accused and for which he was lynched is in jail here.

Rumors here followed the appearance here yesterday of a 14-year old white girl whom a negro attacked and she came here to identify a negro, Olie Watson, taxi driver that is held here charged with having attacked a young negro girl.

Neither the white girl or her parents would make any statement as they left the jail.

Rumors have come here from Columbia that several witnesses may be had that state that Watson was the man on a bridge near Columbia that supposedly attacked the young white girl.

Scott, who was hung for the crime pleaded innocent while the white girl was in the door of the jail in which he was held at Columbia.

WE FAVOR ACCEPTANCE OF HENRY FORD'S BID FOR MUSCLE SHOALS.

FRANCE SEEMS TO HAVE MADE HER LAST AND BEST BID.

The settlement of the world war debts is at a standstill. The French have evidently made their last and best offer. This offer is said to be the requirement of 26 billion gold marks from Germany and a discharge from all her war obligations, to the allies.

France has paid out around 8 billion dollars in repairing German war damage, the 26 billion gold marks is said to be equal to six and a half billion dollars, so France is losing over a billion dollars according to her latest offer. It would seem unreasonable for France to have to go on and pay the allies a war debt of several billion dollars in addition, when it is recalled that all the allies made common cause of the flight against the Germans.

Besides the present national debt of France is said to be 68 billion dollars, not a small sum when it is considered that France has only about two fifths the population of this country. The national debt of this country is said to be 22 billion at this time.

The United States desires to cut her war debt several billion dollars by making France pay over her war obligations. England proposes the same kind of an arrangement for France. In view of this can France be called grasping in any of her war debt settlement proposals.

France was determined to cut her war debt from 68 billion to some 54 billion at the expense of Germany. This country was determined to cut its war debt from 22 billion to about 18 billion at the expense of France. And yet many Americans were claiming that France was greedy and attempting to set up a military dictatorship.

It would be about as reasonable for a man to be charged with desiring to put his neighbor in jail for life, just because he sent officers to his house to collect a just and honest debt.

The fact that France is willing for part of her war losses to come from anywhere, not necessarily from Germany, tends to show she is not after crushing the Fatherland. All France says is she has stood for all the losses he can and that she will hold the Ruhr valley until the end of time unless she is paid six and a half billion dollars by Germany and discharged of her financial obligations to her late allies.

The treaty of Versailles awarded the French the sum of $17,000,000,000. It is said that the present offer of France cuts that amount down to state.

GOLDFIELD, Nevada, July 6.—A fire that started this morning about 7:30 o'clock remained unchecked after it had devoured three business buildings. Water and dynamite are both being used but as yet ineffectively. The fire threatens to wipe out the entire business section of the city.

IT'S TIME IT STOPPED.

Alabama newspapers that are read outside the state are credited in many circles as accurately reflecting the sentiments of our people, and their views are given importance as definitely the position of our people and the character of our public servants. Thus such newspapers have the added responsibility of taking special pains accurately to reflect conditions as they are. They are not expected to subvert the state's fair name to prejudice or to concern for some private or monopolistic interest. Therefore, it is particularly unfortunate that certain newspapers in Alabama have chosen deliberately to give this state undeservedly a bad name abroad, and to belittle and disparage the public servants and legislators chosen by the people of this state, because certain monopolistic favorites of these newspapers have been forced to put the public interest before their own private greed. It is time for a halt to be called upon this sort of journalistic policy of serving some special favorite.

One such newspaper, for example, refers to the legislators and public officials who opposed the Alabama Power Company's aspirations for a water-power monopoly in this state as "peewee politicians." Governor Kilby strongly resisted the encroachments of the Alabama Power Company upon the public right, and successfully blocked their effort to impose upon the people and industry of this state an unjust rate levy. Would the newspaper apply the term "peewee politician" to Mr. Kilby? Governor Brandon has gone on record as opposing the monopoly of the water power resources of this state. Would the newspaper using the term "peewee politician" therefore apply it to Governor Brandon? Is Mr. Kilby or Governor Brandon of those whom the newspaper accuses of having shot "venomous shafts" at the newspaper's corporate protegee? On another occasion, when our congressional delegation standing courageously for the public welfare, actively bestirred itself to prevent the extension of an unwelcome monopoly in that important state asset—natural water power—its members were editorially rewarded with abuse and opprobrious names, among which "peanut politicians" and "little politicians" were prominent. These congressmen, the sixty-two legislators of Alabama, the public service commissioners, who have likewise been similarly abused for doing their public duty, and Governor Brandon were elected by the votes of the people of Alabama, to whom they are trying to fulfill their allegiance. The people of Alabama will not tamely see their duly chosen servants reviled, nor do they regard with relish this untrue and harmful reputation that certain newspapers are establishing for Alabama among other states.—Age Herald.

The secret is out as to why George Harvey came home so suddenly. He could not bear the idea of seeing the statue of Walter H. Page one of his predecessors at the court of St. James, unveiled in Westminster Abbey.

CLUB CONTRACT SIGNED. WORK TO BEGIN IN FALL

The final contract for the transfer of deeds for the Valley Country club has been signed according to advice given out by President Charles Roundtree this morning.

The site selected and settled upon is the Woodard place on the Somerville road and contains about 80 acres of rolling land. The geography of the site will furnish an excellent course for the local golf club.

President Roundtree said that work would be started about September or October just as soon as the present crop on the land has been harvested. At the present time it is the plan of the organization to use the farm house on the place as a club house after some repairing is done. Later on it is thought that plans will be carried out for the completion of a new club house which will undoubtedly be one of the most pretentious in this section of the state.

of the sword, and to check arrogant autocracy discovers her to the world in her true light.

With every fresh advance, with every new enterprise, crowned with the blessing of the religion under which she has been christened and nourished, she becomes more and more revealed in her true loveliness. She is known, respected, admired and imitated in all the world. Her own people sing with an increasing degree of pride, "My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty, of Thee We Sing." The bleeding hands of the world are stretched out to America today, and she closes not her eyes to these empty hands. The cries from afar have been heeded, and appeals answered, until they long to send their children to enjoy what America alone can furnish. They cry out: "O that some day my country shall be like America." In view of her past history and achievements, in view of the position she occupies, what shall we next expect of America?

Sure, we are of this, she knows no retreat. She lives not unto herself, but humbly accepts her place in the great federation of man kind. We doubt if any man lives who can prophesy her future course, or even her next step, but we all feel confident that America is given to the world for leadership, development and uplift to the whole race. We are sure also that this position is accepted with a view to justice, righteousness, and obedience to the will of God.

If we shall go forth under the mandates, not so much of the League of Nations, but of Almighty God, all the bloodshed of the past, all the long vigils and fervent prayers, all the sacrifices, all the heroisms, will not have been in vain. We may not live to see the next great discovery in America's life, but it is for us to have faith that when emergency calls she shall be there with her hands full of blessings, her heart full of love and her face beautiful with the joy of serene face beautiful with the joy of serene counties will participate.

Fearing no foe without, capable of conquering every foe within, if we will, let us with gratitude continue to sing:

"Our Father's God to Thee, author of liberty, to Thee we sing.
 Long may our land be bright with freedom's holy light.
 Protect us by Thy might, Great God above."

COMPLIMENT TO MRS. HURSTON
Mrs. J. B. Schimmel was hostess at a rook party Thursday afternoon to compliment Mrs. Milton Hurston, who will leave soon to make her home in Cullman. Shasta daisies and sweet peas, all gift flowers, were used for decorating the living and dining rooms where the four tables were placed for the rook game.

Mrs. B. A. Turner made highest score at the game. The honoree was presented a pretty luncheon cloth as a souvenir of the affair.

Those playing were Mrs. J. D. Bush, Mrs. Morris Ford, Mrs. T. K. Boggs, Mrs. B. A. Turner, Mrs. Guy Blackwell, Mrs. Dick Kennedy, Mrs. A. W. Reams, Mrs. Robert Gray, Mrs. E. F. Bard, Mrs. H. McDougald, Mrs. Melvin Hutson, Mrs. T. B. Woodard, Mrs. Zeno Bailey and Misses Madelyn Troup and Edith Goodman and the honoree. Mrs. L. P. Troup joined the players for refreshments which consisted of a delightful plate fruit salad course, and ice tea.

YOUNG GIRLS HONORED
Miss Elizabeth Ottwell, of Cullman and Misses Helen and Mary Daniell Moore, of Nashville, were inspirations for a very pretty rook party given this week by Miss Agnes Cassells. Independence Day colors, red, white and blue were effectively carried out by using flags and sweet peas in these colors and the ice course which was served after the game used this same color scheme. On each plate as a souvenir of the afternoon, was a dainty corsage of sweet peas and a miniature flag.

Agnes Giles was the lucky contestant at the game and received as a prize, a handkerchief, and Susie Smith won the booby, a "firecracker" stick of candy. The three honorees, each were presented a gift.

Miss Cassells guest list follows: Misses Louise Flemming, Eleanor Ramage, Leo Williams, of Birmingham, Frances Himes, Marjory Pointer, Agnes Giles, Margaret Broadus, Susie Smith, Louise Almon, Allene Thompson, Mary and Elwin Lion, of Nashville; Babye Bess Bailey, Elizabeth Ann Morrow, Louise Neill, Mary Barry, and Vivien Flemming.

Miss Ross, of Gulfport, Miss, is here at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. O. Kyle, who is ill at the Benevolent hospital.

ROOK PARTY TODAY
Miss Marjory Pointer is entertaining at rook this afternoon for the young girls visiting in the Twin-Cities.

Miss Leo Williams, of Birmingham, returned home this morning after a visit to her aunt, Mrs. J. H. McMath.

PICNIC AT SWAN LAKE
Miss Agnes Cassells had a most delightful picnic at Swan Lake on Thursday afternoon for her house guest, Miss Elizabeth Ottwell, of Cullman. Boat riding was one of the features of the afternoon and those enjoying this outing were: Misses Eleanor Ramage, Marjory Pointer, Allene Thompson, Mary and Elwin Lion, of Nashville; Agnes Giles, and Elizabeth Ottwell.

The chaperones were Misses Lou Giles and Maud Clary.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holtman have returned to their home in Evansville, Ind., after a visit to their father, A. J. Holtman.

Mrs. F. M. Sittason, after a visit to Sheffield of a month, has returned home.

Miss Elizabeth Berry has had her tonsils removed and is reported doing nicely.

Mrs. W. A. Boutwell, of Evergreen, is the guest of Mrs. A. L. Moye.

MRS. ALMON AND MRS. McENTIRE HOSTESS
One of the largest and most brilliant social functions of the year was the beautiful tea given on Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 at the Almon home when Mrs. Almon and Mrs. Leroy McEntire entertained in honor of the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Almon who are Mrs. E. B. Almon of Tusculum; Mrs. Charlotte Curry, of Tusculum; Mrs. R. E. Jones, of Athens, Ga.; Mrs. T. H. Alexander, of Nashville, Tenn.; and Mrs. William Lee, of Town Creek, Ala.

Upon reaching the porch the guests were served refreshing punch by the following young girls: Misses Louise Neill, Ruth Jackson, Maxie Speake and Louise Almon and they were pretty summer frocks. Shasta daisies were lined on the sides of the porch. Mrs. F. S. Hunt wore a printed chiffon dress with flowers outlined in beads and she with Mrs. J. I. Crisinger in a black beaded costume, received at the front door. Mrs. B. E. Preuit graciously introduced to the receiving line and her dress was of white brocaded silk.

The receiving line stood in the music room. Mrs. Almon was first in the line and she was dressed in gray dress beaded in cut steel beads; Mrs. Leroy McEntire wore a navy blue costume covered with bronze beads; next came Mrs. E. B. Almon and she wore gray lace; Mrs. Curry's dress was of black lace; Mrs. Jones was sweet in her pink tulle with lace sleeves; Mrs. Lee wore a creation of lavender crepe de chine and Mrs. Alexander was attractive in an orchid voile dress trimmed in cream lace. All of those wore corsages of sweet peas.

Mrs. Darwin Peabody wore a beautiful white crepe de chine beaded in black beads and Mrs. Will Wyker in a white crepe de chine trimmed in silver lace, assisted her in the living room and they passed the callers to the dining room. In this room presiding over the tea table were Mrs. Almon, in white dress with imported floral crepe lace yoke and Mrs. L. A. Neill in an orchid sequence creation. The following members of the younger set in pretty evening dresses, rainbow hues, served dainty sandwiches, iced tea, nuts and bon bons: Misses Jane Knight, Marjorie Beard, Mary Harvey, Mary Jervis, Tollethe Buchanan and Christine Almon.

The music room was usually pretty with its soft shaded lights and decorations of pink gladiolas and white roses, while the living room held a profusion of yellow daisies. In the dining room pink gladiolas were used affectively and pink tapers lighted the room. A concealed orchestra rendered music during the entire afternoon and about two hundred accepted this hospitality.

Mrs. Vera Austelle, of the county health unit, writes from Mt. Eagle, Tenn., to Mrs. O. B. Smith, of the county health unit, that she is enjoying every minute of the time at the Tennessee resort.

Asks This Lady, "That I'm a Believer in Cardui?"—Had Been So Weak She Had to Go to Bed.
Oswatimie, Kans.—Mrs. E. E. Keast, formerly of Illinois, residing here, says: "We moved to this state eleven years ago, and I had good health for a long while; and then some year or so ago I had a bad sick spell. . . .
"I got so weak I couldn't go. I couldn't stand on my feet at all. I had to go to bed. I suffered a great deal. I was so nervous I felt I couldn't live. I tried medicines, and everything had the best of attention, yet I wasn't able to get up. I lay for three months, not able to do anything.
"My husband is a bill poster and has circulars distributed. One day they came to be a Ladies Birthday Almanac among his circulars. I read it, and told some of the family to get me a bottle of Cardui. . . .
"I quit all other medicines and took it (Cardui) faithfully, and two weeks from the time I began to take Cardui I was out of bed—better than for months.
"I kept it up and continued to improve until I was a well woman.
"Do you wonder that I am a believer in Cardui? I certainly am. And I am sure there is no better tonic made for women than Cardui." NC-151
